

Application for reinstatement to membership (or reinstatement to the affiliate register)

Please use BLOCK CAPITALS and black ink throughout.

All former members or affiliates seeking reinstatement must pay the current year's subscription (some affiliates may be entitled to the lower rate subscription, refer to page 5 for details), the reinstatement fee and any unpaid sums owed at the time of removal from the register. If you were struck off for non-payment of the annual subscription and, or, the membership admission fee, you will also be required to pay subscription fees for the period you were off the register. If you formally resigned with no fees outstanding in your account, and your resignation was accepted by Council, you are not required to pay subscription fees for the period you were off the register. Please refer to page 5 for confirmation of fees. If you are uncertain of the full amount due by you please contact ACCA's trained advisors at ACCA Connect, details below. Alternatively, you may wish to write to ACCA, the address details are also confirmed below.

An individual excluded from the register on disciplinary grounds or due to bankruptcy may, in addition to completing this form and paying all fees and any other sums due, be asked to supply character references and may be subject to the preparation of a report by an ACCA approved practitioner on his/her conduct in the period since his/her exclusion, for which an additional fee may be payable. Applicants may also be required to pass further examinations and/or tests and be subject to further conditions for reinstatement. Advice on these procedures will be given on receipt of this form.

An applicant for reinstatement who is in public practice (whether on a full-time or spare-time basis) in the UK (including Channel Islands and Isle of Man) or Ireland as the principal of a firm must submit an application for a practising certificate with this form. An applicant for reinstatement in public practice elsewhere must submit either an application for an ACCA practising certificate or supply a copy of a practising certificate issued by a recognised national body or authority with this form. (Applicable only to former members; affiliates are not permitted to enter into public practice.)

I hereby apply for reinstatement to membership/reinstatement to the affiliate register of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA).

I undertake that, if re-admitted, I will, so long as I remain a member or affiliate of ACCA, comply with the bye-laws and all other regulations of ACCA for the time being in force.

I further undertake that I will use the designation 'Chartered Certified Accountant' and/or the prescribed designatory letters 'ACCA' or 'FCCA' only while I remain a member of ACCA. (Not applicable to applicants for reinstatement to the affiliate register.)

I acknowledge my duty to the public to ensure that the quality of my knowledge and service is maintained after qualification. I therefore accept my responsibility to undertake continuing professional development as directed by Council and specified in the Chartered Certified Accountants' Membership Regulations.

I confirm that I have read and fully comprehend the content of ACCA's bye-law 8 on page 6 and that there is nothing which I should bring to ACCA's attention at the present time. Please note that the UK Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 does not apply to the accountancy profession. You are, therefore, required to disclose spent convictions.

I declare that the information contained in this application is true, accurate and complete to the best of my knowledge and belief. I acknowledge that any statement contained therein which is known by me to be false may invalidate this application and any decision reached thereon by the Council of ACCA.

I enclose my remittance as set out on page 5.

- 8 a A member, relevant firm or registered student shall, subject to bye-law 11, be liable to disciplinary action if:
- i he or it, whether in the course of carrying out his or its professional duties or otherwise, has been guilty of misconduct;
 - ii in connection with his or its professional duties, he or it has performed his or its work, or conducted himself or itself, or conducted his or its practice, erroneously, inadequately, inefficiently or incompetently;
 - iii he or it has committed any breach of these bye-laws or of any regulations made under them in respect of which he or it is bound;
 - iv in the case of a relevant firm, any person has in the course of the business of that firm committed any breach of these bye-laws or of any regulations made under them in respect of which that person is bound;
 - v he is a specified person in relation to a relevant firm against which a disciplinary order has been made and which has become effective or which has been disciplined by another professional body or pursuant to some other disciplinary process;
 - vi he or it has been disciplined by another professional body or pursuant to some other disciplinary process;
 - vii he or it has made an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or has made an arrangement for the payment of a composition to creditors, or has had an interim order made by the court in respect of him, or is a specified person in relation to a relevant firm which has made such an assignment or composition or been wound up as an unregistered company, or entered into a voluntary arrangement, administration or liquidation, in each case where applicable under the Insolvency Act 1986, or other similar or analogous event has occurred in relation to him or it under applicable legislation; or
 - viii he or it has failed to satisfy a judgment debt without reasonable excuse for a period of two months (and the fact that he or it did not have sufficient funds to discharge the debt shall not be a reasonable excuse for this purpose) whether or not the debt remains outstanding at the time of the bringing of the disciplinary proceedings hereunder.
- b Each of the paragraphs in bye-law 8(a) shall be without prejudice to the generality of any of the other paragraphs therein.
- c For the purposes of bye-law 8(a), misconduct includes (but is not confined to) any act or omission which brings, or is likely to bring, discredit to the individual or relevant firm or to the Association or to the accountancy profession.
- d For the purposes of bye-law 8(a), in considering the conduct alleged (which may consist of one or more acts or omissions), regard may be had to the following:
- i whether an act or omission, which of itself may not amount to misconduct, has taken place on more than one occasion, such that together the acts or omissions may amount to misconduct;
 - ii whether the acts or omissions have amounted to or involved dishonesty on the part of the individual or relevant firm in question;
 - iii the nature, extent or degree of a breach of any code of practice, ethical or technical, adopted by Council, and to any regulation affecting members, relevant firms or registered students laid down or approved by Council.
- e The following shall be conclusive proof of misconduct:
- i the fact that a member, relevant firm or registered student has pleaded guilty to, or been found guilty of, any offence discreditable to him or, as the case may be, it, or derogatory to the Association or the accountancy profession, before a court of competent jurisdiction in the United Kingdom or before a court of competent jurisdiction any other country where such court's judgments are in the opinion of Council (or relevant committee of Council) relevant;
 - ii the fact that a member, relevant firm or registered student has been found to have acted fraudulently or dishonestly in any civil proceedings before any court of competent jurisdiction in the United Kingdom or before a court of competent jurisdiction in any other country where such court's judgments are enforceable in the United Kingdom.
